

CREW Kick-Off Workshop

26 January 2012, 9.50 a.m. – 5.00 p.m.

PIK Potsdam, Building A62, Conference Room 305

AGENDA

- 9.50 Handshakes, coffee and cookies, small talk
- 10.00 Opening: Welcome and Overview of CREW
- Welcome by Ottmar Edenhofer & round of self-introductions
 - CREW Overview by Kai Lessmann / Robert Marschinski
- 10.30 Session I: Connecting to the CREW Project
- Current research related to CREW on which we could build*
- The Timing of Climate Agreements under Multiple Externalities: Robert Schmidt and Roland Strausz (Roland presents)
 - International Tax Competition and Environmental Pollution: Marco Runkel and Robert Schmidt (Robert presents)
 - Technology Policy as 2nd Best Option? Results from the PRIDE Model: Ottmar Edenhofer
- 12 – 1 pm lunch break
- 1 – 2.30 pm Session II: Tools for the CREW Project
- On which formal and computational tools will we build?*
- Mechanism Design and how it can help to study Climate Policy: Fabio Antoniou
 - Numerical Models of PIK – Latest Developments and some Results: Kai Lessmann
 - Climate Policy in Models of Tax Competition and Capital Mobility: Karl Zimmermann
- 2.30 – 2.45 pm coffee & health break
- 2.45 – 4.15 pm Session III: Pinning down ideas for CREW papers
- Confronting the first 2 Work-Packages in brain-storm mode*
- WP I-1: The climate game as a global public goods problem: analysing structures, identifying parameters. Input by WP leader PIK
 - WP II-1: Second-best policies under international trade. Input by Lydia Blaschschak
- 4.15 – 4.30 pm coffee & health break
- 4.30 – 5.00 pm Wrap-up & next steps: organizational matters
- Planning of upcoming project meetings
 - Project reporting duties
 - PhD supervision
- 6 pm Optional social dinner in downtown Potsdam on a 'pay for yourself' basis