

Climate Risks for Asset Managers (CRAMs)

London Event

Date: Monday, June 4th
Timing: 12:30pm - 6pm
Location: Norges Bank Investment Management London Office
Queensberry House
3 Old Burlington Street
London W1S 3AE
England

- 12:30 - 1:00 Lunch
- 1:00 - 1:30 Status update on the “Climate Risks for Asset Managers” (CRAMs) project
– David Lunsford, Carbon Delta & Thomas Nocke, Potsdam Institute (PIK)
- 1:30 - 2:00 UK Green Finance Taskforce’s report, titled “Establishing the World’s Best Framework for Climate-Related and Sustainability-Related Financial Disclosures” - TBD
- 2:00 - 2:30 Transition Pathways Initiative update
– Bruno Rausis, London School of Economics (LSE)
- 2:30 - 3:30 Update on CRAMs Transition Risk & Opportunity Modeling
– David Lunsford, Carbon Delta & Christoph Bertram, Potsdam Institute (PIK)
- Managing Climate Policy Risks
 - 2°C Portfolio Alignment
 - Identifying Low-Carbon Investment Opportunities
- 3:30 - 4:30 Update on CRAMs Physical Risk & Opportunity Modeling
– Oliver Marchand, Carbon Delta & Boris Prah, Potsdam Institute (PIK)
- Extreme Weather Analysis
 - Extreme heat
 - Extreme cold
 - Wind gusts
 - Wildfire
 - Snowfall
 - Heavy precipitation
 - Tropical cyclones
 - Fluvial flooding
- 4:30 - 5:30 Roundtable discussion: What the future holds for Climate-Related Financial Disclosures and How we could bring various climate change initiatives together in order to maximize the benefits for investors
– Moderator: Andreas Spiegel, Carbon Delta
- 5:30 - 6:00 Next steps for the CRAMs project – All